From Monday April 19. to Thursday April 22 1697.

Malaga, March 26. N. S.

THE 18th Inſtant called in here the Phœnix, Capt. Jacobs, in 28 days from Waterford bound to Venice, and ſailed again the 21th. The Eagle Galley from Zant ſailed the ſame day for Cadiz; and yeſterday departed the Goſpright, and the Jeffry Galley, both from Scanderoon; They left the Priſcilla in the Offin. The Martin Galley, and the Levant Galley, are arrived here from Briſtol.

Madrid, April 3. Their Catholick Majeſties continue in perfect Health. New Levies are made in all theſe parts for the Service of Catalonia, and all other neceſſary Preparations are continued for the Campagne on that ſide. Letters from Cadiz of the 18th Inſtant ſay, the Viceroy who came home with the Flota from the Weſt-Indies, died ſome days before at Port St. Maries.

Coruna, April 14. The 11th Inſtant arrived here the Spaniſh-Allyance Pacquet-Boat in 3 days from Falmouth. His Majeſties Ship the Barwick, commanded by the Lord Hamilton, ſailed this morning for Vigo. Four of the Dutch Ships that went with the Dutch Convoy from Bilboa, are returned to St. Antonio, having eſcaped from the French Men of War who attacked the ſaid Convoy.

Warſaw, April 10. All the Endeavours that have been hitherto uſed to break the Confederacy of the Troops in Upper-Poland, proving ineffectual, the Senate have now under Conſideration, what remains to be done, in the preſent Circumſtances of Affairs, to preſerve the Publick Peace, and ſecure the Freedom of the Election, which is to be the next month; and being of Opinion, that the beſt means that can be made uſe of for this purpoſe, is, That all the Gentlemen ſhould appear in the Field, the Primate has been deſired to ſend out Circular Letters to ſummon them againſt the time of the Election in the manner that has been practiſed formerly in like Occaſions.

Vienna, April 13. As the Seaſon advances, ſo the Preparations for the Campagne are haſtned; Great quantities of all ſorts of Military Proviſions are ſent to Hungary; and repeated Orders have been diſpatched to all the Troops to be in a readineſs to march by the beginning of the next month. The Elector of Saxony continues to have frequent Conferences with the Imperial Miniſters, to regulate Matters in relation to the next Campagne; The Emperor has not yet declared who ſhall command the Army under him. We have an account from Sclavonia, that a ſtrong Party of our Huſſars paſſed the Save lately, and meeting a Convoy that was going with Proviſions to Belgrade, they attacked and defeated the Turks that were appointed for their Guard, killing above 100 Janiſaries, and bringing away a very conſiderable Booty of Laden Horſes and Camels. The Biſhop of Paſſaw is expected here to morrow, to receive his Diſpatches; after which he will proceed on his Embaſſy to Poland.

Francfort, April 21. Prince Lewis of Baden is come to Guntsburg, where he will make a ſtay of a few days; In the mean time the Forces of the Allies draw together near Hailbron; and will encamp at Eppingen ſo ſoon as there is Forage to be found in the Field. They continue to work on the Lines and Fortifications that are making near the River Neckar, in which Service a great number of Peaſants are continually employed. The Marquis d'Uzelles, one of the French General Officers, is come to Landaw; The laſt Advices from thoſe parts ſay, the French are not in ſuch forwardneſs to take the Field as has been reported; and that 'twill be the middle of the next month, before their Troops can draw together; They continue to provide a great many Boats and ſmall Veſſels on the Rhine, and to make Preparations for ſome great Enterprize.

Cologne, April 23. Letters from Ausbourg of the 18th of this month adviſe, that the States of the Circle of Suabia had been aſſembled ſeveral days; That they had agreed to furniſh their Quota of Troops for the Army of the Empire, and had appointed Deputies to aſſiſt on their part at the General Meeting of the Six Circles, which is to be held at Francfort in the beginning of the next month. The Deputies of the Circle of Weſtphalia are ſtill aſſembled here. The Brandenburg Forces that were quartered in this Country are marched towards the Meuſe.

Paris, April 22. The French King has taken a Review of the Troops of his Houſhold, and ordered Detachements out of them to ſerve this Campagne; The Muſketeers began their march this day. Mareſchal Villeroy will part hence in few days for Flanders, Mareſchal Choiſeul, and Mareſchal Catinat for Germany, and the Duke de Vendoſme for Catalonia; and the Mareſchals de Tourville and d'Eſtrees are to command on the Sea Coaſts. The News from Flanders of the Allies having taken the Camp of Deynſe, which the Mareſchal de Boufflers intended to poſſeſs himſelf of, gives them a Mortification at this Court. The difficulties the French Miniſters meet with in raiſing of Money, encreaſe every day; None of the Edicts that have been publiſhed of late anſwer expectation; and they can expect no better ſucceſs of any new Projects. The Squadron of 5 Men of War and 3 or 4 Fireſhips, commanded by the Marquis de Neſmond, are fitting at Breſt, and may be ready to go to Sea by the end of this month. We have yet no News of Monſieur Pointi; but every body concludes he is gone to the Weſt-Indies. The Princes Alexander and Conſtantin went hence this day, in order to return to Poland.

Bruſſels, April 24. The Elector of Bavaria has taken the Camp at Deynſe, to the great diſappointment of the French, who were on their march to poſſeſs themſelves of it; and his Electoral Highneſs has cauſed the Avenues to be fortified, and has there above 30000 men, moſt Foot; the greateſt part of the Horſe remaining in the Gariſons for the conveniency of their ſubſiſting, till there be Forage in the Field. The Forces commanded by the Prince de Vaudemont, are at preſent poſted in ſeveral ſmall Bodies; one towards Louvain; an other about half a League from this City; and a third near Waterlo, and this laſt Camp being moſt expoſed to the Enemy, they are caſting up ſeveral Works for its greater ſecurity.
